HERBERT C. BYE

Each year the Indiana Polled Shorthorn Association honors one of its members for their outstanding contribution to the breed. This year the honoree is Herbert C. Bye. He was reared on a Jay County livestock farm with Polled Shorthorn cattle. When young, he learned to judge cattle by memorizing the beef cattle point system score card. He was in State Fair livestock three years and won individual honors.

Bye owned a son of an International Grand Champion Polled Shorthorn bull which, when marketed off pasture, weighed 2,160 pounds.

He has helped Jay County 4-H beef win nine Shorthorn grand champion and eight Shorthorn reserve champion awards in thirteen consecutive years.

Mr. Bye has a wife, two sons and a daughter who have helped and shared in the satisfaction that comes from the association with Polled Shorthorn people.

Arrowhead Caroline 18th x, typical of the many outstanding Polled Shorthorn females throughout the state of Indiana. She is the dam of Arrowhead Silver Nugget x, senior stock bull at Arrowhead Farms, Batesville, Ind., consignors to this sale.

MEYERWAY LEADER LEW 94th—A real long trim bull out of a heifer that run on grass this spring and most of the summer, a bit thin but will suit the most critical buyers. This calf is the first son of Big Lew and a good one.

What an array of breeding power. The females selling are sired by and bred to bulls that are writing breed history. Study the pedigrees and read the footnotes, note the strength of this consignment of Polled Shorthorn females. They are not only the kind that will lay a solid foundation for the new breeder . . . but also the kind that will strengthen any herd, be it large or small . . . new or old . . . famous or just getting that way. 19 of them are 1972 heifer calves and will be eligible for the junior shows next year.
